URGENT MESSAGE FROM MOTHER: GATHER THE WOMEN, SAVE THE WORLD

The Urgent Message that Jean Bolen carries to us is from Mother Earth, Mother archetype, mother instinct and the sacred feminine. It is a call to bring into consciousness and culture that which C.G. Jung called the "feminine principle"--which most women and some exceptional men embody. This way of being is characterized by an empathic response to suffering. Women as a gender, not every woman, but women generally, have a wisdom that is needed. Terrorism, wars, and the proliferation of nuclear weapons, global warming and deterioration of the environment; domestic violence, bullying, trafficking in women and girls, and children who are traumatized and dying of preventable diseases are the toxic symptoms of a world without Mother. The grassroots women's movement changed the world through consciousness and activism. Once again, this time through circles with a spiritual center--a critical mass, "millionth circle" tipping point--could change perception, move people to action, and save the world. 2 CEUs available.

LOVE VS. POWER: FROM FAMILY PSYCHOLOGY TO THE FATE OF THE EARTH

We all come into world seeking to be loved and if we are not loved, we settle for power. Drawing from archetypal psychology, patterns emerge: trauma, neglect, and bullying, identifying with the aggressor, chronic victimization, emotional numbness and addictions. The roles are the authoritarian father, the disempowered feminine, and the neglected child--which play out within the psyche, in dysfunctional families, and in war and commerce. When Jean Shinoda Bolen tells us themes from the Grail Legend, the Abduction of Persephone, and Wagner's Ring Cycle, these mythic stories come to life and provide insights into ourselves, dysfunctional family psychology and patriarchy. The missing feminine principle needs to be brought into the psyche, family and culture. Fierce compassion, tenderness, mother bear protectiveness, grandmother wisdom, "enough is enough" crone activism are qualities of an empowered feminine principle. All of these can be nurtured and supported in circles with a sacred center.

In this workshop, Jean will tell stories that reverberate in our psyches, lead a guided meditation and provide a small circle experience and information. She will encourage the formation of ongoing support and activist circles. 5 CEUs available. You must register by Friday, Feb. 8th; no registrations will be taken the "day of".
