

The C.G. Jung Society of Saint Louis Presents

Robert Moore, Ph.D.

Lecture and Workshop

LECTURE: The Ego-Archetypal Self Axis:
From Jungian Concept to Ecstatic Communion
Friday, May 6, 7:00 – 9:30 p.m. (2 CEUs)
First Congregational Church UCC
6501 Wydown, Clayton, MO 63105
Fee: Friends - $20; Others $25; Full-time Students $12.50

In this lecture Dr. Moore will offer his neo-Jungian reflections on various aspects of the individuation process—how the process manifests itself in the lived experiences of individuals and its impact on the experience of ego and Other or the greater Self. He will describe potential states of consciousness and being that are actualized and incarnated in the individual personality as the individual develops a growing awareness of his/her relationship to the greater Self. Dr. Moore will explore the range of consciousness of the optimizing personality and the existential lived experience of individuals on the path of individuation.

WORKSHOP: Loving the Dragon:
Understanding and Living the Ego-Archetypal Self Relationship
Saturday, May 7th, 9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. (5 CEUs)
First Congregational Church UCC
6501 Wydown, Clayton, MO 63105
Fee: Friends - $80; Others $90; Full-time Students $45

In this workshop Dr. Moore will lead us deeper into understanding the challenge of building a more optimal conscious relationship to the Great Self Within through the experience of Jungian analysis and integrative spiritual practice. He will examine the challenge of forming and developing a helpful conscious ego/Self connection. Then we will engage in assessing the state of our conscious development and current practice in this key challenge of the individuation process. The workshop will include lecture, discussion, interpersonal sharing of experience, and experiential exercises.
